

Where Will We Run To?

by X. J. Kennedy

Free verse does not have a regular rhythm and usually does not rhyme.

Where will we run to
When the moon's
Polluted in its turn

And the sun sits
With its wheels blocked
In the used star lot ?

Draw a bracket next to each stanza.

Highlight a sentence and circle where it ends.

Underline alliteration.

▲ Factory smoke rises toward the moon.

Sentence

Alliteration

Where Will We Run To?

by X. J. Kennedy

Free verse does not have a regular rhythm and usually does not rhyme.

Where will we run to

When the moon's

Polluted in its turn

And the sun sits

With its wheels blocked

In the used star lot (?)

Draw a bracket next to each stanza.

Highlight a sentence and circle where it ends.

Underline alliteration.

▲ Factory smoke rises toward the moon.

Sentence

Alliteration

Where Will We Run To?

by X. J. Kennedy

Where will we run to
When the moon's
Polluted in its turn

And the sun sits
With its wheels blocked
In the used star lot ?

Drag the correct label next to each stanza.

Definition ↑

Imagery includes sensory language and figurative language, such as simile, metaphor, and personification.

Sensory Language

Metaphor

Where Will We Run To?

by X. J. Kennedy

Where will we run to
When the moon's
Polluted in its turn

Sensory Language

And the sun sits
With its wheels blocked
In the used star lot ?

Metaphor

Drag the correct label next to each stanza.

Definition ↑

Imagery includes sensory language and figurative language, such as simile, metaphor, and personification.

Secretary Bird

by Alice Schertle

Definition

Poetry structure includes lines, stanzas, rhyme, rhythm, meter, and repetition.

Take a letter :

Say that the ancient trees are falling .

Say that

the whale's song grows faint .

Say the passenger pigeon is gone .

The great auk is gone .

The rhino, the mountain gorilla ,
almost gone . . .

Circle punctuation at each line break.

Highlight examples of repetition.

▲ Secretary Bird

Punctuation

Repetition

Secretary Bird

by Alice Schertle

Definition

Poetry structure includes lines, stanzas, rhyme, rhythm, meter, and repetition.

Take a letter

Say that

the ancient trees are falling

Say that

the whale's song grows faint

Say the passenger pigeon is gone

The great auk is gone

The rhino, the mountain gorilla

almost gone...

Circle punctuation at each line break.

Highlight examples of repetition.

▲ Secretary Bird

Punctuation

Repetition

Secretary Bird

by Alice Schertle

Take a letter :

Say that

the ancient trees are falling .

Say that

the whale's song grows faint .

Say the passenger pigeon is gone .

The great auk is gone .

The rhino, the mountain gorilla ,
almost gone . . .

Drag a label next to each example
of sensory language.

▲ Secretary Bird

Sensory Language

Sensory Language

Secretary Bird

by Alice Schertle

Take a letter :

Say that

the ancient trees are falling .

Sensory Language

Say that

the whale's song grows faint .

Sensory Language

Say the passenger pigeon is gone .

The great auk is gone .

The rhino, the mountain gorilla ,
almost gone . . .

Drag a label next to each example
of sensory language.

▲ Secretary Bird

